

The image shows a title slide for an inauguration programme. The text is centered on a white rectangular background with a thin green border. The background of the entire slide is a textured light brown color. Two thick black horizontal bars are positioned on either side of the white box, partially overlapping its edges. The text is in a bold, brown, serif font. The word 'INAUGURATION' is on the top line, followed by a thin horizontal line, then the word 'PROGRAMME' on the next line, and finally the year '2017' on the bottom line.
